

Disease

The Disease Prevalence is calculated by identifying the number of patients with a specific disease diagnosis and expressing it as a percentage of the total population.
 The disease categories are the same as the conditions provided in the conditions filter (except for some Mental Health Conditions).
 The data is displayed as:

- Prevalence per condition as a percentage of this population in a bar chart

A bar is also provided on the chart for patients that have 'None of these' disease categories.

Demographics Ethnicity Allergies Smoking Alcohol Measures Pathology Disease Screening Co-morbidities Medication Diabetes SIP CKD Musculoskeletal CV Event Risk

Immunisations MBS Items Visits After Hours Practice Data Quality Benchmark Report Diabetes Indicators Standard Reports Digital Health STI Screening Health Care Homes

Disease Prevalence Cancer

Disease Prevalence

- View Map
View Report
View Timeline
Download

