Saving Filter Criteria

The 'Saved Filters' tab allows a set of filter criteria to be saved as a named search. Saved searches can be reloaded at a later time and rerun. This gives the ability for practices to run the same filters over intervals of time and against different data snapshots and compare results.
A saved filter can also be set as the default and be automatically loaded each time CAT4 opens.

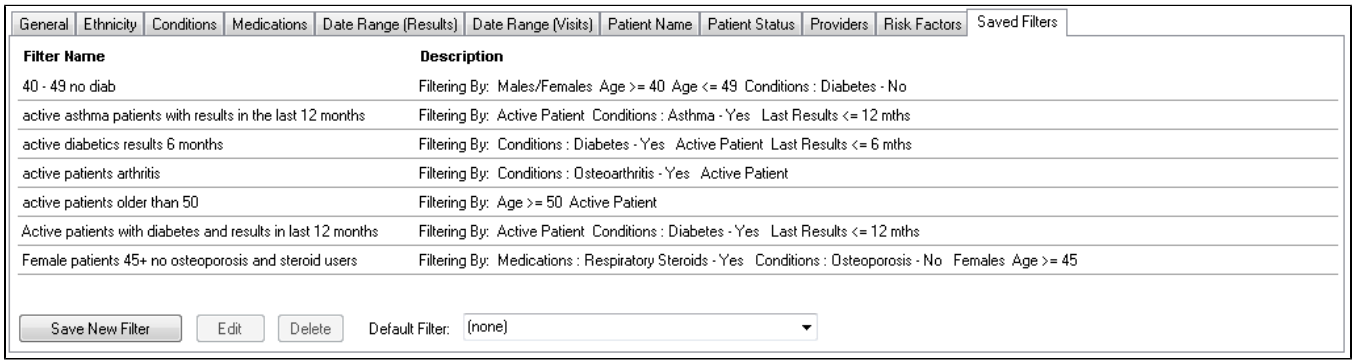

Figure 29: Saved Filters tab