

Export Data File

This will allow clinics to export their data file for use in specific projects. This function is only available for participants of particular projects and needs to be licenced by PENCS.