

Communicare Data Mapping

Unknown macro: 'export-link'

- Implemented Functionality
- Communicare Mapping Details
- Reference Appendix Communicare Custom Fields Mapping

| Version | Date        | Modified By        | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------|-------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.0         | 15 Feb 2012 | Nigel Patmore      | Initial release for Communicare 12.5, CAT 3.3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1.1         | 26 Jun 2013 | Ian Cartwright     | Final release for Communicare 13.2, CAT 3.6.1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1.2         | 25 Jul 2013 | Ian Cartwright     | Communicare 13.3, CAT 3.6.1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1.2.1       | 01 Feb 2016 | Matthias Merzenich | Updated for online documentation                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1.3         | 17 Feb 2017 | Brian Dunstan      | Added support for <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Smoking readiness to quit</li><li>• Physical activity</li><li>• Audit-C</li><li>• CVD risk assessment</li></ul> Also documented support for additional command line parameters.                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1.4         | 24 Feb 2017 | Brian Dunstan      | Added active support for products, referenced by documentation provided by PCS for these elements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• beta_blockers_chronic_heart_failure</li><li>• respiratory_asthma_combination</li><li>• respiratory_asthma_oral_steroids</li><li>• respiratory_asthma_preventers</li><li>• respiratory_asthma_relievers</li><li>• respiratory_asthma_symptom_controllers</li></ul> |
| 1.5         | 08 Mar 2017 | Brian Dunstan      | Added support for all documented Generic drugs.Added support for TestMode.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1.6         | 22 Mar 2017 | Christine Chidgey  | Update Mappings from 1.10 to 1.15 – is compatible with CAT MedicalMicrodata version 1_15 (with exclusion of Data Quality Report, Maternal Health > Size in weeks at first visit report and Date Range Visits filter)Minor updates to medication lists                                                                                                                                                |
| 1.6.1       | 28 Apr 2017 | Steve White        | Add eGFR                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1.6.2       | 04 May 2017 | Steve White        | Further influenza vaccine mappings. HbA1c in mmol/mol.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1.6.3       | 03 May 2018 | Brian Dunstan      | Added Cervical Screen, for Communicare release 18.2.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1.6.4       | 03 May 2018 | Brian Dunstan      | Documented support for the Health Care Homes Trail and updated the TOC.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |